

We measure up

Refrigeration system fabrication/installation

Bassett Mechanical is among the most experienced and respected refrigeration contractors in the United States. When customers want top-quality, reliable refrigeration systems built, whether using ammonia or an HCFC, they know that the fabrication and installation crews from Bassett Mechanical have the experience and determination to get the job done on time and on budget!

Serves all of your refrigeration systems needs

- Experienced managers and tradespeople who care about quality!
- Shop fabrication of key components to reduce overall costs
- Managers and crews traveling throughout the U.S., working with local tradespeople to handle any size project
- Complete engineering and design backup for troubleshooting
- Code compliant for OSHA, PSM, RMP, EPA, HAACP
- Experience with all sizes and types of refrigeration systems

Our experience counts! Bassett Mechanical serves hundreds of industrial, cold-storage and food plant clients throughout the United States!

AREAS OF EXPERTISE