

We measure you

Energy & utility system surveys

Helping you make the right system choice

Is your system consuming more energy than it should? Call on Bassett Mechanical to help your business reduce energy costs and minimize energy use. After analyzing your building(s) we'll make recommendations for operating choices and systems changes to reduce the amount of energy your company uses. Put those wasted dollars back in to your pocket!

Bassett Mechanical serves all of your energy and utility system survey needs

- Identification of high value opportunities
- Utility rate analysis
- Project scope development
- Project financing arrangements
- Detailed cost and savings analysis
- Measurement and verification plan development
- Project management and implementation
- Turn key solutions

Energy and utility system surveys for:

- Boilers
- Chillers/cooling towers
- Motors/VFDs
- VFDs on pumps and fans
- Steam distribution systems
- Control systems
- Lighting
- HVAC systems
- Refrigeration systems
- Compressed-air systems

AREAS OF EXPERTISE